THE SHOOTING

High-Volume Dove Hunting

Argentina's dove population is unlike anything else on Earth. The Eared Dove — found in astronomical numbers across Córdoba's agricultural plains — offers relentless, fast-paced shooting from morning to dusk.

Your personal field assistant will be stationed with you, ensuring your shotgun is always loaded and shells restocked without interruption. This is non-stop action wingshooting at its purest.

Beyond doves, the calendar also includes pigeon shooting (technically demanding and highly rewarding) and perdiz — Argentina's native partridge — for those looking for a more traditional, walk-up hunting experience.

THE FULL EXPERIENCE

Lunch in the Field

Midday brings a legendary Argentine tradition: a full asado spread served right in the field. The best cuts of beef, chorizo, and morcilla grilled over open fire — paired with a robust Malbec and refreshing Argentine lager.

Brief naps on comfortable hammocks follow, before the afternoon hunt resumes. This is Argentina at its most authentic and convivial.

Expert Team

Every hunter is matched with a dedicated personal field assistant who manages ammunition, bird retrieval, and logistics — so you never miss a beat in the action.

Back at the lodge, cocktail hour, gourmet dinners, massages on request, and the warm camaraderie of the estancia complete an unforgettable day. La Catalina's team makes every guest feel like family.
